SECTION G. POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

A charity can legally pursue political activities that are non-partisan, related to its charitable purposes, and limited in extent. Political activities are those designed to influence law, policy, and public opinion (see line 124 in the guide).

G1 During the fiscal period, did the charity attempt to influence public opinion or to affect legislation or policy using any of the following means?

- media advertisements	400	Yes	No
- conferences, workshops, speeches, or lectures	401	Yes	No
- publications, or published or broadcast statements	402	Yes	No
- rallies, demonstrations, or public meetings	403	Yes	No
- mailings to elected officials or the public	404	Yes	No
- meetings with elected officials or their staff	405	Yes	No
- presentations or briefs to elected or appointed officials	406	Yes	No
- letter-writing campaigns	407	Yes	No
- other (please specify)	408	Yes	No

G2 If you answered yes on any of lines 400 to 408, describe how these activities relate to the charity's purposes.

G3 Did the charity give money or other forms of support either as a gift to a qualified donee to help the recipient organization carry on political activities, or as payment to another organization or individual to help the charity conduct its own political activities? 420 Yes No

If yes, provide the name and location of the recipient. If a recipient is also a registered charity, provide the BN/registration number.

Name	Location (city and province)	BN/Registration number