Dear Dr. Akabutu:

Subject: Notice of intention to revoke
The Tanya Smale Cord Blood Foundation

We are writing with respect to our letter dated February 14, 2018 (copy enclosed), in which The Tanya Smale Cord Blood Foundation (the Organization) was invited to respond to the findings of the audit conducted by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA), and explain why the registration of the Organization should not be revoked in accordance with subsection 168(1) of the Income Tax Act.

As of this date, we still have not received any response to our letter.

Conclusion

The audit by the CRA found that the Organization is not complying with the requirements set out in the Act. In particular, it was found that the Organization failed to maintain adequate books and records, issued donation receipts not in accordance with the Act and/or its Regulations, and failed to file an information return as and when required by the Act and/or its Regulations. For all of these reasons, and for each reason alone, it is the position of the CRA that the Organization no longer meets the requirements for charitable registration and should be revoked in the manner described in subsection 168(1) of the Act.

For each of the reasons mentioned in our letter dated February 14, 2018, pursuant to subsection 168(1) and 149.1(2) of the Act, we propose to revoke the registration of the Organization. By virtue of subsection 168(2) of the Act, revocation will be effective on the date of publication of the following notice in the Canada Gazette:

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to paragraphs 168(1)(b), 168(1)(c), 168(1)(d), 168(1)(e), and subsection 149.1(2) and 149.1(14) of the Income Tax Act, that I propose to revoke the registration of the charity listed below and that by virtue of paragraph 168(2)(b) thereof, the revocation of registration is effective on the date of publication of this notice in the Canada Gazette.

| Business number | Name |
| 866230238RR0001 | The Tanya Smale Cord Blood Foundation Edmonton AB |

Should the Organization choose to object to this notice of intention to revoke the Organization's registration in accordance with subsection 168(4) of the Act, a written notice of objection, with the reasons for objection and all relevant facts, must be filed within 90 days from the day this letter was mailed. The notice of objection should be sent to:

Tax and Charities Appeals Directorate
Appeals Branch
Canada Revenue Agency
250 Albert Street
Ottawa ON K1A 0L5

A copy of the revocation notice, described above, will be published in the Canada Gazette after the expiration of 90 days from the date this letter was mailed. As such, the Organization's registration will be revoked on the date of publication, unless the CRA receives an objection to this notice of intention to revoke within this timeframe.

A copy of the relevant provisions of the Act concerning revocation of registration, including appeals from a notice of intention to revoke registration, can be found in Appendix A, attached.

Consequences of revocation

As of the effective date of revocation:

- a) the Organization will no longer be exempt from Part I tax as a registered charity and will no longer be permitted to issue official donation receipts. This means that gifts made to the Organization would not be allowable as tax credits to individual donors or as allowable deductions to corporate donors under subsection 118.1(3) and paragraph 110.1(1)(a) of the Act respectively;
- b) by virtue of section 188 of the Act, the Organization will be required to pay a tax within one year from the date of the notice of intention to revoke. This revocation tax is calculated on Form T2046, Tax Return Where Registration of a Charity is Revoked (the Return). The Return must be filed, and the tax paid, on or before the day that is one year from the date of the notice of intention to revoke. The relevant provisions of the Act concerning the tax applicable to revoked charities can also be found in Appendix A. Form T2046 and the related Guide RC4424,

Completing the Tax Return Where Registration of a Charity is Revoked, are available on our website at canada.ca/charities-giving;

- c) the Organization will no longer qualify as a charity for purposes of subsection 123(1) of the Excise Tax Act. As a result, the Organization may be subject to obligations and entitlements under the Excise Tax Act that apply to organizations other than charities. If you have any questions about your Goods and Services Tax/Harmonized Sales Tax (GST/HST) obligations and entitlements, please call GST/HST Rulings at 1-888-830-7747 (Quebec) or 1-800-959-8287 (rest of Canada).

Finally, we advise that subsection 150(1) of the Act requires that every corporation (other than a corporation that was a registered charity throughout the year) file a return of income with the Minister in the prescribed form, containing prescribed information, for each taxation year. The return of income must be filed without notice or demand.

Yours sincerely,

Tony Manconi

Subject: Audit of The Tanya Smale Cord Blood Foundation

Dear Dr. Akabutu:

This letter results from the audit of the The Tanya Smale Cord Blood Foundation (the Organization) conducted by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA). The audit related to the operations of the Organization for the period from April 1, 2014 to March 31, 2016.

The CRA has identified specific areas of non-compliance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act and/or its Regulations in the following areas.

| AREAS OF NON-COMPLIANCE | | |
|-------------------------|--|---|
| | Issue | Reference |
| 1. | Failure to maintain adequate books and records | 230(2), 168(1)(b), 168(1)(e) |
| 2. | Issuing donation receipts not in accordance with the Act and/or its Regulations | 149.1(2), 168(1)(d), Regulations 3500, 3501 |
| 3. | Failure to file an information return as and when required by the Act and/or its Regulations | 149.1(2), 149.1(14), 168(1)(c) |

The purpose of this letter is to describe the areas of non-compliance identified by the CRA during the course of the audit as they relate to the legislative and common law requirements applicable to registered charities, and to provide the Organization with the opportunity to make additional representations or present additional information. Registered charities must comply with the law, failing which the Organization's registered status may be revoked in the manner described in section 168 of the Act.

We acknowledge that in a letter dated September 1, 2017, the Organization requested voluntary revocation of its charitable status, stating there is no further need of the Organization's services, there is a lack of voluntary financial donations to the Organization, and there is a lack of staff to operate and maintain the Organization.

A registered charity may request that its charitable status be voluntarily revoked, however, the granting of voluntary revocation is a discretionary process on the part of the CRA. Based on our audit findings, it is our opinion that the voluntary revocation is not a suitable resolution, and the Organization's request will not be granted at this time.

The balance of this letter describes the identified areas of non-compliance in further detail.

Identified areas of non-compliance

1) Failure to maintain adequate books and records

Legislation:

Pursuant to subsection 230(2) of the Act, every registered charity "shall keep records and books of account [...] at an address in Canada recorded with the Minister or designated by the Minister containing:

- a) information in such form as will enable the Minister to determine whether there are any grounds for revocation of its registration under the Act;
- b) a duplicate of each receipt containing prescribed information for a donation received by it;
- c) other information in such form as will enable the Minister to verify the donations to it for which a deduction or tax credit is available under this Act."

In addition, subsection 230(4) also states "Every person required by this section to keep records and books of account shall retain:

- a) the records and books of account referred to in this section in respect of which a period is prescribed, together with every account and voucher necessary to verify the information contained therein, for such a period as is prescribed;
- b) all other records and books of account referred to in this section, together with every account and voucher necessary to verify the information contained therein, until the expiration of six years from the end of the last taxation year to which the records and books of account relate."

The policy of the CRA relating to the maintenance of books and records, and books of account, is based on several judicial determinations and the law, which have held that:

- i. it is the responsibility of the registered charity to prove that its charitable status should not be revoked¹;
- ii. a registered charity must maintain, and make available to the CRA at the time of an audit, meaningful books and records, regardless of its size or resources. It is not sufficient to supply the required documentation and records subsequent thereto²; and
- iii. the failure to maintain proper books, records, and records of account in accordance with the requirements of the Act is itself sufficient reason to revoke an organization's charitable status in the case of material or repeated non-compliance³.

Audit Findings:

The audit revealed the Organization failed to satisfy the requirements of paragraph 230(2) of the Act as the following required information and documentation was not provided upon request during the audit review:

- a) Bank statements and cancelled cheques
- b) Bank deposit slips, loan documentation, expense receipts, and sales invoices
- c) The general ledger and trial balance.

As no source documents or accounting ledgers were provided for the audit review, it was not possible to trace revenues, expenses, or liabilities reported on the T3010 Registered Charity Information Return through to an accounting record and/or source document to substantiate the reported figures. Furthermore it did not allow for verification of existence, completeness, accuracy, and reasonability of revenues received and expenditures incurred in furtherance of charitable purposes.

During discussions with [REDACTED] John Akabutu held on July 4, 2017, [REDACTED] Akabutu stated that the Organization's bookkeeping is intermingled with [REDACTED], a related corporation and further stated that figures reported on the T3010 Charity Information Returns are based on estimates rather than actual amounts. This manner of accounting for the Organization is not an acceptable method of accounting.

It is our view that the Organization failed to maintain adequate books and records and to provide complete access to its records for our inspection. Under paragraph 168(1)(e) of the Act, the Minister may, by registered mail, give notice to the charity that the Minister proposes to revoke its registration because it fails to comply with or contravenes section 230 of the Act dealing with books and records. It is our position the Organization has failed to comply with and has contravened section 230 of the Act. For this reason alone there may be grounds to revoke the registered status of the Organization.

² Canadian Committee for the Tel Aviv Foundation, 2002 FCA 72 at para 39, [2002] 2 CTC 93. Furthermore, failing to comply with the requirements of section 230 of the Act by refusing to make documents available can lead to a fine and imprisonment, in addition to the penalty otherwise provided. See subsection 238(1) of the Act.

2) Issuing donation receipts not in accordance with the Act and/or its Regulations

Legislation:

Paragraph 230(2)(b) of the Act provides that every registered charity shall "keep records and books of account [...] at an address in Canada recorded with the Minister [...] [including] a duplicate⁴ of each receipt containing prescribed information for a donation received by it"

Subsection 3501(1) of the Regulations provides that each official donation receipt that a registered charity issues must include, in a manner that cannot be readily altered, the prescribed contents of a receipt.

Audit Findings:

It was revealed during our review that duplicate donation receipts were not maintained by the organization as required by subsection 230(2) of the Act. As no receipts were made available for review, it could not be determined if the contents of the donation receipts contained the prescribed information set out in subsection 3501(1) of the Regulations.

It is our position that the Organization does not issue receipts according to the Act and its Regulations. For this reason alone, there may be grounds for revocation of the Organization's charitable status under paragraph 168(1)(d) of the Act.

3) Failure to complete an accurate charity information return

Legislation:

Subsection 149.1(14) of the Act states that:

Every registered charity and registered Canadian amateur athletic association shall, within six months from the end of each taxation year of the charity or association and without notice or demand, file with the Minister both an information return and a public information return for the year in prescribed form and containing prescribed information.

It is the responsibility of the Organization to ensure that the information provided in its T3010 charity returns, schedules and statements, is factual and complete in every respect. A charity is not meeting its requirements to file an information return in prescribed form if it fails to exercise due care with respect to ensuring the accuracy thereof. The Federal Court of Appeal has confirmed that major inaccuracies in a T3010 returns are a sufficient basis for revocation⁵.

Audit Findings:

The T3010 Charity Information Returns filed for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2015 and March 31, 2016 contained reported amounts in Schedule 6, Detailed Financial Information that could not be substantiated since the supporting documentation was not provided during the audit. As reported earlier, during discussions with [REDACTED] John Akabutu held on July 4, 2017, [REDACTED] Akabutu stated that the Organization's bookkeeping is intermingled with [REDACTED], a related corporation and further stated that figures reported on the T3010 Charity Information Returns are based on estimates rather than actual amounts.

More specifically, for fiscal year ending 2015, an amount of $87,427 was reported on Line 4300 – Accounts payable and accrued liabilities. No documentation or explanation was provided to substantiate this amount or what the payables were comprised of. As a result, we were unable to determine the charitable purpose for the payables.

For fiscal year ending 2015, an amount of $1,283,650 was reported on Line 4330 Line 4330 - Other Liabilities. In the absence of supporting documents, [REDACTED] Akabutu informed us during a meeting held on July 4, 2017, the liabilities comprise of the following:

- Estimates of fees payable to [REDACTED] for annual processing and storage of the Foundation's public cord blood stem cells. The amount has increased over a period of approximately ten years. No documentation, such as invoices from [REDACTED] was provided to substantiate or further detail these fees.
- A loan in the amount of $200,000 made from [REDACTED] Akabutu's professional corporation [REDACTED] to the Organization. To date, the Organization has not made any repayments on the loan. No loan documentation or repayment schedules were provided to support the existence of a loan.

For fiscal year ending 2014, an amount of $180,000 was reported on Line 4500 – Total eligible amount of all gifts for which the charity issued tax receipts. For fiscal year ending 2015, $70,000 was reported on Line 4500. The Organization failed to keep duplicate copies of the official donation receipts and as a result, we could not verify the receipted donation amounts reported or their origins.

For fiscal year ending 2015, an amount of $241,532 was reported as on Line 4650 – Other revenue. During our discussion with [REDACTED] Akabutu on July 4, 2017, [REDACTED] Akabutu explained the Other Revenue was for the sale of cord blood stem cells. Our review of the bank account deposits revealed that revenue for stem cell sales totaled $54,376 not $241,532. Therefore, the amount reported revenue on line 4650 is unsubstantiated.

⁵ Opportunities for the Disabled Foundation v MNR, 2016 FCA 94 at paras 48-51.

For fiscal year ending 2015, an amount of $241,532 was reported on Line 4880 – Total expenditure on all compensation. During our discussion with ██████ Akabutu on July 4, 2017, ██████ Akabutu explained the amount consisted of wage expenses for employees of ██████. Since the Organization does not have any employees and this expense concerns employees of ██████, the amount should not figure on the charity return.

Furthermore, it was determined that the T3010 Charity Information Returns were late-filed for 2014 and 2015 as indicated below:

| Organization FYE | Due Date | Date Received |
|------------------|--------------------|------------------|
| March 31, 2015 | September 30, 2015 | February 4, 2016 |
| March 31, 2014 | September 30, 2016 | March 3, 2017 |

Under subsection 168(1)(c) of the Act, the registration of a charity may be revoked if it fails to file a charity information return when required under the Act. It is our position the Organization has failed to comply with the Act by failing to file an accurate T3010. For this reason, there may be grounds to revoke the registered status of the Organization under paragraph 168(1)(c) of the Act.

Under paragraph 168(1)(c) of the Act, the Minister may, by registered mail, may give notice to the charity that the Minister proposes to revoke its registration because the charity fails to file a Registered Charity Information Return as and when required under the Act or a Regulation. For this reason, there may be grounds for revocation of the charitable status of the Organization.

The Organization's options:

a) No response

The Organization may choose not to respond. In that case, the Director General of the Charities Directorate may issue a notice of intention to revoke the registration of the Organization in the manner described in subsection 168(1) of the Act.

b) Response

After considering the response, the Director General of the Charities Directorate will decide on the appropriate course of action.

The possible actions include:

- no compliance action;
- issuing an educational letter;

- resolving the issues through a Compliance Agreement;
- applying penalties or suspensions or both, as described in sections 188.1 and 188.2 of the Act; or

Section 188: Revocation tax

188(1) Deemed year-end on notice of revocation

If on a particular day the Minister issues a notice of intention to revoke the registration of a taxpayer as a registered charity under any of subsections 149.1(2) to (4.1) and 168(1) or it is determined, under subsection 7(1) of the Charities Registration (Security Information) Act, that a certificate served in respect of the charity under subsection 5(1) of that Act is reasonable on the basis of information and evidence available,

- (a) the taxation year of the charity that would otherwise have included that day is deemed to end at the end of that day;
- (b) a new taxation year of the charity is deemed to begin immediately after that day; and
- (c) for the purpose of determining the charity's fiscal period after that day, the charity is deemed not to have established a fiscal period before that day.

188(1.1) Revocation tax

A charity referred to in subsection (1) is liable to a tax, for its taxation year that is deemed to have ended, equal to the amount determined by the formula

A is the total of all amounts, each of which is

- (a) the fair market value of a property of the charity at the end of that taxation year,
- (b) the amount of an appropriation (within the meaning assigned by subsection (2)) in respect of a property transferred to another person in the 120-day period that ended at the end of that taxation year, or
- (c) the income of the charity for its winding-up period, including gifts received by the charity in that period from any source and any income that would be computed under section 3 as if that period were a taxation year; and is the total of all amounts (other than the amount of an expenditure in respect of which a deduction has been made in computing income for the winding-up period under paragraph (c) of the description of A), each of which is

- (a) a debt of the charity that is outstanding at the end of that taxation year,
- (b) an expenditure made by the charity during the winding-up period on charitable activities carried on by it, or
- (c) an amount in respect of a property transferred by the charity during the winding-up period and not later than the latter of one year from the end of the taxation year and the day, if any, referred to in paragraph (1.2)(c), to a person that was at the time of the transfer an eligible donee in respect of the charity, equal to the amount, if any, by which the fair market value of the property, when transferred, exceeds the consideration given by the person for the transfer.

188(1.2) Winding-up period

In this Part, the winding-up period of a charity is the period that begins immediately after the day on which the Minister issues a notice of intention to revoke the registration of a taxpayer as a registered charity under any of subsections 149.1(2) to (4.1) and 168(1) (or, if earlier, immediately after the day on which it is determined, under subsection 7(1) of the Charities Registration (Security Information) Act, that a certificate served in respect of the charity under subsection 5(1) of that Act is reasonable on the basis of information and evidence available), and that ends on the day that is the latest of

- (a) the day, if any, on which the charity files a return under subsection 189(6.1) for the taxation year deemed by subsection (1) to have ended, but not later than the day on which the charity is required to file that return,
- (b) the day on which the Minister last issues a notice of assessment of tax payable under subsection (1.1) for that taxation year by the charity, and
- (c) if the charity has filed a notice of objection or appeal in respect of that assessment, the day on which the Minister may take a collection action under section 225.1 in respect of that tax payable.

188(1.3) Eligible donee

In this Part, an eligible donee in respect of a particular charity is a registered charity

- (a) of which more than 50% of the members of the board of directors or trustees of the registered charity deal at arm's length with each member of the board of directors or trustees of the particular charity;
- (b) that is not the subject of a suspension under subsection 188.2(1);
- (c) that has no unpaid liabilities under this Act or under the Excise Tax Act;

- (d) that has filed all information returns required by subsection 149.1(14); and
- (e) that is not the subject of a certificate under subsection 5(1) of the Charities Registration (Security Information) Act or, if it is the subject of such a certificate, the certificate has been determined under subsection 7(1) of that Act not to be reasonable.

188(2) Shared liability — revocation tax

A person who, after the time that is 120 days before the end of the taxation year of a charity that is deemed by subsection (1) to have ended, receives property from the charity, is jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable with the charity for the tax payable under subsection (1.1) by the charity for that taxation year for an amount not exceeding the total of all appropriations, each of which is the amount by which the fair market value of such a property at the time it was so received by the person exceeds the consideration given by the person in respect of the property.

188(2.1) Non-application of revocation tax

Subsections (1) and (1.1) do not apply to a charity in respect of a notice of intention to revoke given under any of subsections 149.1(2) to (4.1) and 168(1) if the Minister abandons the intention and so notifies the charity or if

- (a) within the one-year period that begins immediately after the taxation year of the charity otherwise deemed by subsection (1) to have ended, the Minister has registered the charity as a charitable organization, private foundation or public foundation; and
- (b) the charity has, before the time that the Minister has so registered the charity,
 - (i) paid all amounts, each of which is an amount for which the charity is liable under this Act (other than subsection (1.1)) or the Excise Tax Act in respect of taxes, penalties and interest, and
 - (ii) filed all information returns required by or under this Act to be filed on or before that time.

188(3) Transfer of property tax

Where, as a result of a transaction or series of transactions, property owned by a registered charity that is a charitable foundation and having a net value greater than 50% of the net asset amount of the charitable foundation immediately before the transaction or series of transactions, as the case may be, is transferred before the end of a taxation year, directly or indirectly, to one or more charitable organizations and it may reasonably be considered that the main purpose of the transfer is to effect a reduction in the disbursement quota of the foundation, the foundation shall pay a tax under this Part for the year equal to the amount by which 25% of the net value of that property determined as of the day of its transfer exceeds the total of all amounts each of which is its tax payable under this subsection for a preceding taxation year in respect of the transaction or series of transactions.

188(3.1) Non-application of subsection (3)

Subsection (3) does not apply to a transfer that is a gift to which subsection 188.1(11) or (12) applies

188(4) Transfer of property tax

If property has been transferred to a charitable organization in circumstances described in subsection (3) and it may reasonably be considered that the organization acted in concert with a charitable foundation for the purpose of reducing the disbursement quota of the foundation, the organization is jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable with the foundation for the tax imposed on the foundation by that subsection in an amount not exceeding the net value of the property.

188(5) Definitions

189(6) Taxpayer to file return and pay tax

Every taxpayer who is liable to pay tax under this Part (except a charity that is liable to pay tax under section 188(1)) for a taxation year shall, on or before the day on or before which the taxpayer is, or would be if tax were payable by the taxpayer under Part I for the year, required to file a return of income or an information return under Part I for the year,

(a) file with the Minister a return for the year in prescribed form and containing prescribed information, without notice or demand therefor;

(b) estimate in the return the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Receiver General the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer under this Part for the year.

189(6.1) Revoked charity to file returns

Every taxpayer who is liable to pay tax under subsection 188(1.1) for a taxation year shall, on or before the day that is one year from the end of the taxation year, and without notice or demand,

(a) file with the Minister

(i) a return for the taxation year, in prescribed form and containing prescribed information, and

(ii) both an information return and a public information return for the taxation year, each in the form prescribed for the purpose of subsection 149.1(14); and

(b) estimate in the return referred to in subparagraph (a)(i) the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer under subsection 188(1.1) for the taxation year; and

(c) pay to the Receiver General the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer under subsection 188(1.1) for the taxation year.

189 (6.2) Reduction of revocation tax liability

If the Minister has, during the one-year period beginning immediately after the end of a taxation year of a person, assessed the person in respect of the person's liability for tax under subsection 188(1.1) for that taxation year, has not after that period reassessed the tax liability of the person, and that liability exceeds $1,000, that liability is, at any particular time, reduced by the total of

(a) the amount, if any, by which

(i) the total of all amounts, each of which is an expenditure made by the charity, on charitable activities carried on by it, before the particular time and during the period (referred to in this subsection as the "post-assessment period") that begins immediately after a notice of the latest such assessment was sent and ends at the end of the one-year period exceeds

(ii) the income of the charity for the post-assessment period, including gifts received by the charity in that period from any source and any income that would be computed under section 3 if that period were a taxation year, and

(b) all amounts, each of which is an amount, in respect of a property transferred by the charity before the particular time and during the post-assessment period to a person that was at the time of the transfer an eligible donee in respect of the charity, equal to the amount, if any, by which the fair market value of the property, when transferred, exceeds the consideration given by the person for the transfer.

189(6.3) Reduction of liability for penalties

If the Minister has assessed a particular person in respect of the particular person's liability for penalties under section 188.1 for a taxation year, and that liability exceeds $1,000, that liability is, at any particular time, reduced by the total of all amounts, each of which is an amount, in respect of a property transferred by the particular person after the day on which the Minister first assessed that liability and before the particular time to another person that was at the time of the transfer an eligible donee in respect of the particular person, equal to the amount, if any, by which the fair market value of the property, when transferred, exceeds the total of

(a) the consideration given by the other person for the transfer, and

(b) the part of the amount in respect of the transfer that has resulted in a reduction of an amount otherwise payable under subsection 188(1.1).

189 (7) Minister may assess

Without limiting the authority of the Minister to revoke the registration of a registered charity or registered Canadian amateur athletic association, the Minister may also at any time assess a taxpayer in respect of any amount that a taxpayer is liable to pay under this Part.
